

McKenzie Stewardship Group –AGENDA
May 16th, 2008 - 2:00- 4:30 pm
Upper McKenzie Community Center

Schedule
Time	Topic
2:00 pm	Review Agenda - Announcements
2:05	Bridge Thin Update and Discussion
2:35	Group “Check – In” Comments, Concerns and Suggested Agenda Items
2:55	Group Agreements
3:05	Clarifying terms and definitions List terms Participants each write definitions
3:20	Intermission
3:35	(Terms and definitions cont.)
3:50	Identifying a Vision Discuss interests and values Discuss goals Participants each write a draft vision
4:15	Field Tour Plan the Bridge Thin Field Trip Next Meeting Time and Location
	Recap
4:30 pm	Adjourn

Vision Statement – The most distinguishing feature of a vision statement is that it is values-based. It shows group members what conditions are like when they are working their mission and living within their work-related values. The vision integrates the group's core values into the work statement and clearly presents to the rest of the world who the group is and what it is all about.¹

¹ The Facilitator's Fieldbook. Thomas Justice and David W. Jamieson. 1999.